Bachelor of Ministry, Bachelor of Theology and Related Programs

PC421-D
Theology for Everyday Life

Semester 2, 2016

Malyon College
is an approved institution of the Australian College of Theology

PC421-D is offered by Malyon College as part of the Bachelor of Ministry, Bachelor of Theology and Related Programs authorized for distance and contact delivery by the college, which is an accredited award of the Australian College of Theology (ACT).
Malyon College

At Malyon we recognise that the world is changing. These are times of great challenge and opportunity. Our commitment is to raising up a generation of influential Christians who have a strong biblical base, skills in leadership and ministry, and a heart for God.

We have been training Christian leaders for over 100 years, and we’ve learnt a few things about theological training. Our graduates are serving all over the world as pastors, cross-cultural workers, workplace leaders, chaplains, church leaders and theological faculty.

Malyon offers full-time and part-time study options through lecture, intensive and distance modes. We have excellent resources for students including a large library, wireless internet and 24 hour access to the campus. All our awards are accredited through the Australian College of Theology.

The Australian College of Theology

The ACT was established under the auspices of the General Synod of the Anglican Church of Australia in 1891. The ACT is a company limited by guarantee governed by a nine-member Board of Directors. The Anglican Primate of Australia presides as the chairman of meetings of the company which consists of 54 persons (in 2010). The ACT is an Australasian provider of state accredited higher education courses leading to awards in theology and other disciplines related to Christian ministry. The ACT operates as an ecumenical consortium of some 2,500 students enrolled in 19 Bible and theological colleges approved to teach the awards of the ACT. These awards range from two-year diplomas, three-year undergraduate and coursework masters degrees to masters and doctoral research degrees.

The ACT has a centrally devised and managed curriculum and a quality assurance process that are applied across the whole network of affiliated colleges. The day-to-day educational system is managed by the Dean from the ACT office in Sydney. Academic governance is the responsibility of the Academic Board which oversees all academic activities of the College. The standing committees of the Academic Board share this responsibility by monitoring the quality of delivery and resourcing, developing policy, and reviewing the course structure for research, coursework and diploma courses. The membership of the Academic Board and its committees is comprised mostly of faculty members of affiliated colleges. A number of senior university academics are represented to help ensure that ACT practice (especially in the outcome of the consideration of research examiner’s reports and general academic policy) remains comparable with the standards of and best practice in the university sector.

As a HEP under the Higher Education Support Act, the College was required to undergo a quality audit conducted by the Australian Universities Quality Agency (AUQA). The AUQA Audit Report was publicly released on the AUQA website in February 2007.

In 2010 the company consists of 54 members composed in the following way:

1. the Anglican Primate of Australian and the Dean of the ACT,
2. the principals of 10 Anglican Theological Colleges,
3. 21 persons elected by the House of Bishops of the General Synod,
4. the principals of 11 affiliated colleges approved to deliver the research degrees of the ACT,
5. 5 graduates holding an ACT research degree,
6. 5 graduates holding any other degree of the ACT.
UNIT DETAILS

Unit Description

PC421-D Theology for Everyday Life is an elective unit within the BMin and BTh degrees in the department of Ministry and Practice. The unit aims at enabling students to make much deeper connections between what we believe as Christians and the way we live our everyday lives – in a very broad sense, to cultivate reflective Christians who will be distinctly, recognisably and intentionally Christian on a 24/7 basis.

Credit Points

This unit is valued at 4 credit points.

Co- and Pre-Requisites

None.

Exclusions

None.

Unit Content

The unit is made up of the following sections and sub-sections:

Section A: Theological Reflection on Everyday Life (40% of the workload)

A reflective study of the following broad themes in the light of the gospel:

1. The routine activities of everyday life, including meals and eating, dress, greetings, transport, sleep and rest, hobbies.
2. The culture within which daily life is lived, including the use of time, the influence of radio, television and printed media, consumerism, sport, gender roles, sexual pressure.
3. Personal relationships, including friendship (with both men and women), family, colleagues, neighbours (in each case considering relationships with people within and beyond the faith).
4. Major social structures as contexts for ministry, including paid work, social security, schooling, housing, community and political involvement.
Section B. Personal Reflection on Everyday Life (30% of the workload)
1. Biography and spiritual autobiography as categories of Christian theology.
3. Personal beliefs and values; commitments and loyalties; the tensions between social solidarity and individual uniqueness.
4. The planning and management of personal ministry and development.

Section C. Lay Ministry in Practice (30% of the workload)
Students are to undertake substantial autobiographical work (with supervised reflection), including the use of a journal, and a written review of their use of time.

Unit Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, student should be able to:

A. Know and Understand (Knowledge):
   A1. The shape of everyday life
   A2. The social structures and culture of everyday life
   A3. The relationship of the gospel with everyday life
   A4. Methods of theological reflection on everyday life

B. Be Able To (Skills):
   B1. Discuss: a) the elements of everyday life; and
       b) the effects of social structure and culture on everyday life
   B2. Analyse the relationship between the gospel and everyday life
   B3. Apply the methods of Christian reflection on everyday life
   B4. Present an analytical evidence-based theological reflection on everyday life

C. Be In a Position To (Application):
   1. Integrate perspectives from theology for everyday life with their other theological studies
   2. Reflect upon everyday life from a Christian standpoint

Workload Requirement

A unit will generally require about 10 hours per week for lectures for contact students or home study for distance students, preparation and revision, and assignment work over thirteen weeks. In addition, two study weeks are worked into each semester. Excluding the study weeks, this generally averages out as follows:

Distance students:
   a. Home study; including forums and revisions – 5 hours per week;
   b. Assessments – 5 hours per week.
Learning Guides

Students should access the Learning Guides on the unit Moodle page for guidance through their studies for the semester.

Assessment Requirements

The student shall complete the following assessment requirements:

1. 2000 word Journal, 10 entries (40%, assessing section B and C of the Unit Outline).
   - Journals 1-5 (1000 wds) due August 31, 2016 (week 7) = 20%
   - Journals 6-10 (1000 wds) due October 19, 2016 (week 12) = 20%
   N.b. Submit Reflection Activity Log with Journals 6-10

2. 3000 word Research Essay (60%, assessing sections A and B of the Unit Outline).
   - Due November 2, 2016 (SWOT Vac).

Contact students will be expected to attend all lectures; while the forum posts are the distance student’s equivalent of classroom interaction. Just as class attendance is compulsory for on-campus students, forum participation is compulsory for distance students.

Students who fail to attend lectures or complete forum posts satisfactorily may be failed.
Required Resources

There is no set text for PC421-D. In order to complete the unit, the student will be required to have access to learning resources made available on Moodle, our Online Learning Centre. These resources may include articles, extracts, contact lecture notes and other learning activities. These resources may include articles, extracts, contact lecture notes and other learning activities. Beyond that, I hope you will cultivate a keen, observant eye for the culture which surrounds us and an ability to be ruthlessly honest with yourself in the application of the gospel and its implications to the “everyday life” that is specifically yours.

The following texts, while not required, are central to this course:

Lectures are Wednesdays, 1:20-2:15pm (period 1), followed by Chapel 2:15-2:45pm and afternoon tea 2:45-3:05pm, 3:05-3:55pm (period 2), and 4:00-4:50pm (period 3), all in Lecture Room 2. Typically period 1 will be focused on small group discussion (working through regular journaling/accountability questions), wisdom for everyday life (A-Z Practices), practising spiritual disciplines, and debriefing the readings.

* n.b. Lecturer is away weeks 3-4 (July 29-August 14). A guest lecturer will guide you through.

UNIT LECTURER

Dave Benson (BAppSci.HMS-Ed; MA; PhD) is the course preparer, lecturer and marker for this subject. As a former high school teacher, youth worker and Pastor of Evangelism and Community Outreach, he is passionate about commending Christ and His Kingdom in Australia’s post-Christendom culture. Dave lectures at Malyon College in the areas of evangelism, apologetics, worldviews, faith–work integration, and practical theology. This parallels Dave’s work as Director of Traverse (the Malyon centre for bridging church and culture), the founder of “Christ’s Pieces” with his wife Nikki as an intentional Christian community, blog writing with “Wondering Fair”, consultancy and generating resources with Scripture Union and the Bible Society for cultural and Scripture Engagement, and his ongoing service with the Lausanne World Evangelization Movement, most recently as Chair of the Programme Committee for the 2016 Younger Leaders Gathering (YLG) in Jakarta. In recent years, he has been studying the place of Sacred Texts in Secular Education, considering the place of religions in Australia’s pluralistic public sphere.

UNIT ASSESSMENT

Assessment Instructions

In completing assessments, students should note that:

1. The College requirements for the writing and submission of assignments are to be adhered to at all times, as marks will be deducted for incorrect and poor presentation. Of particular importance is that the official College title page is to be used, and that the word length be indicated.

2. The current Assignment Style and Writing Guides are available to all students on the Moodle site; it should be studied, both when starting out and at the beginning of each academic year as adjustments or changes may be made from time-to-time.

3. With respect to length, students are permitted to write at a length of 10% either side of the stated length; for example, a 1000-word assignment should be within a 900-1100 word length. Students will be penalized 1% per 100 words, or part thereof, under or over the stipulated length.

4. With respect to the List of References, a specific number of references will not be set; however, students should note the guidelines indicated for the specific assessment requirement. However, students should note that:
   a. Bibles (including study Bibles), basic dictionaries and devotional guides are not regarded as academic references.
   b. Electronic sources should generally not number more than half the required number of references, and should be used with caution.

5. The failure to adhere to the stipulated assessment format requirements will be penalized as follows:
   a. Body of assignment:
      i. 1st level – 1%
      ii. 2nd and subsequent levels – 2%
   b. List of References and referencing:
      i. 1st level – 1%
      ii. 2nd and subsequent levels – 2%
Grade Criteria

Bachelor’s students at the advanced undergraduate degree 400-level should note that grades are awarded on the following criteria:

Units at advanced level build upon foundational studies. Critical issues raised by a broad range of contemporary scholars are introduced and evaluated; primary sources are analysed at depth; and the critical and evaluative faculties of the students are developed in dialogue of scholarly literature.

Pass
 ✓ Demonstrates an engagement with primary sources.
 ✓ Has begun to grasp the foundational features of the discipline.
 ✓ Is beginning to engage with a range of scholarly viewpoints.

Credit
 ✓ Demonstrates ability in engaging primary sources.
 ✓ Evidences a grasp of the foundational features of the discipline.
 ✓ Demonstrates emerging skills in the task of critically evaluating a range of scholarly viewpoints.

Distinction
 ✓ Demonstrates a pronounced ability to engage primary sources and understands their setting and historical context.
 ✓ Evidences a sound grasp of the foundational features of the discipline.
 ✓ Shows an ability to evaluate critically a range of scholarly viewpoints with empathy.

High Distinction
 ✓ Demonstrates a pronounced ability in the analysis of primary sources and understands their setting and historical context.
 ✓ Evidences a confident grasp of the foundational features of the discipline.
 ✓ Exhibits an ability to evaluate and assess empathetically a range of scholarly viewpoints that suggests the emergence of independent thinking and research skills required at early postgraduate level.
ASSESSMENT REQUIREMENTS

Requirement 1: Journal Entries & Lifestyle Changes (Sections B & C of the Unit)

In each of weeks 3 through 12 (inclusive) of the semester (dates listed below), please submit a 200 word journal entry on the previous module’s topic comprising:

a. Your personal experience of and Christian reflection on the assigned practice for the module. Be sure to reference at least one of the pre-readings each entry
b. A brief statement about your use of your time during the previous week, together with a concise self-evaluation

PLEASE NOTE: I am very aware of the fact that journal entries such as those envisaged here will by their nature contain personal material, and so let me: 1) assure you of confidentiality (except with your permission, my eyes will be the only ones to see what you have written); and 2) on that basis encourage you to let me walk beside you this semester as we attempt to narrow the gap between our faith and our behaviour.

It is neither wise nor possible for me to attempt to grade your experience. However, the quality of your reflection on that experience is gradable, and I’ll be assessing your journal entries on the basis of the following key assessment criteria:

1. You have reflected seriously and perceptively on the assigned topic/practice
2. You have formulated a distinctly Christian response to the topic/practice
3. You suggest possible or necessary changes to your attitudes and behaviour as a result of your deliberately Christian reflection on these sometimes “mundane” issues
4. You provide an honest self-evaluation of the use of your time during the week
5. You have engaged at least one pre-reading per entry

It is expected that you will submit your journal entries in a neat (typed) and coherent form.

Length: 2000 words (200 per entry)²

References: At least 10 meaningful references to assigned pre-reading (1 per week)

Due: Wed. August 31, 2016 (week 7) = 20% overall mark, for Journals 1-5 (1000 wds)
     Wed. October 19, 2016 (week 12) = 20% overall mark, for Journals 6-10 (1000 wds)

N.b. Submit Reflection Activity Log with Journals 6-10

Mark allocation: 40%

² Students writing a very specific and concise reflection of 200 words are able to achieve full marks on this task. That said, you won’t be penalised for entries of up to ~300-400 words.
Further details for Requirement 1:

Following are the specific questions for each of the ten journal entries, to which you will respond.

Journal #1 (re: module 2, due before class module 3): How intentional are you at reflecting on your faithfulness to Christ in everyday life? Thinking on the Sermon on the Mount (Matthew 5-7), where are the largest gaps between your beliefs and practices?

Journal #2 (re: module 3, due before class module 4): Share and critically reflect on your practice of communally engaging the Scriptures—together living the Christian story.

Journal #3 (re: module 4, due before class module 5): Give yourself a score out of 10 (10 being perfect, 1 being dysfunctional/non-existent) on each of the four resources for emotionally healthy spirituality: (a) daily office; (b) Sabbath; (c) Rule of Life; (d) Spiritual Friendship. Imagine you were discipling someone with the same profile as you on the Inventory of Spiritual and Emotional Maturity. What one piece of wisdom would you offer?

Journal #4 (re: module 5, due before class module 6): Share and critically reflect on your practice of friendship, particularly as it relates to inclusion and exclusion of the Other.

Journal #5 (re: module 6, due before class module 7): Share and critically reflect on your practice of simplicity, particularly as it relates to consumerism and caring for the poor.

Journal #6 (re: module 7, due before class module 8): Share and critically reflect on your practice of lament, particularly as it relates to experiences of suffering in your life.

Journal #7 (re: module 8, due before class module 9): Share and critically reflect on your practice of rhythms of life. What daily, weekly, and seasonal rhythms do you have? How do, or don’t, they connect you in to the great cloud of witnesses across history and our eternal God?

Journal #8 (re: module 9, due before class module 10): Share and critically reflect on your practice of either (a) a spiritual discipline such as fasting; (b) play/sport/recreation; (c) everyday existence (e.g. body image, eating/drinking, sleeping, sex), particularly as it relates to the physicality (bodily-dimension) of being human.

Journal #9 (re: module 10, due before class module 11): Share and critically reflect on either (a) your use of technology: in what ways is it enhancing or defacing God’s image in you?; (b) your everyday vocation: if someone were to observe your actions across the last week, how would they describe and rate your intentionality at seeking first the Kingdom of God in every facet of your work?

Journal #10 (re: module 11, due before class module 12): Share and critically reflect on your practice of either (a) eating; (b) consuming resources; (c) hospitality, particularly for the stranger.
Reflection Activities

Note that for distance students—equivalent to class participation for on-campus students—there is also a non-graded but compulsory series of reflection activities (four per week). Failure to complete these tasks is viewed as failure to complete the unit requirements.

The reflection activities will assist the student to process and apply the information. They are equivalent to the questioning and discussion that occur in attendance at lectures. Each reflection activity must be completed with a response of at least 30 words. These will not be seen by anyone except the student, who is required to submit an honesty report at the end of the semester. This will indicate that he or she has completed each of the reflection activities.

Length: 1000+ words
References: None required
Due: Wednesday 19 October (only submit report below)
Mark allocation: Non-graded but compulsory (80% completed to pass the course)

Requirement 2: Research Essay – Reflective Practice (Sections A & B of the Unit)

Using a recognised model for theological reflection\(^3\) and other pertinent resources including Scripture, write a 3000 word reflective essay on how you might bring the resources of the Christian gospel to bear on any ONE of the facets of everyday life contained in Section A of the unit outline (e.g. routine activities, cultural context, relationships or social structures). Your essay is first-person and centred on your own experience. However, it should include a practical analysis, with statistical and other data where possible, of the particular facet of everyday life you have chosen as it is experienced in contemporary Australian society.

The key assessment criteria for this requirement are as follows:

1. A clear model for theological reflection is evident, reflecting the foundational features of practical theology as a discipline
2. An appropriate facet of everyday life is chosen and thoroughly explained
3. The model for theological reflection is insightfully applied to understand the chosen facet of everyday life, in empathetic conversation with pertinent resources including Scripture
4. Suggested action plans for behavioural change on the student’s part are well-substantiated, realistic, Christ-like, and clearly serve shalom (holistic flourishing).

Length: 3000 words
References: At least 6 meaningful references beyond assigned-readings
Due: Wednesday 2 November (SWOT Vac.)
Mark allocation: 60%

Further guidelines for Requirement 2:

In structuring your essay, you must draw on three primary theological resources:
- Scripture and Theology (this is the “normative-hermeneutical” source, cf. Module 3)
- Cultural sources such as science, psychology, philosophy etc. (this is the “situational-empirical” source, cf. Module 5)
- Personal reflection (this is the “experiential-strategic” source, cf. Module 5)

Besides 300 words to introduce your model of theological reflection and conclude the essay, you may find it helpful to allocate your words as follows:
1. Explain a practical situation (700 words) ... describe what is happening
2. Understand the situation through a dialogue between cultural and theological perspectives (1400 words)
3. Change the situation with new practical actions (600 words)

Also, in seeking wisdom (phronēsis) to faithfully modify one’s thoughtful practices (pistis praxis = faith seeking truthful action), you are encouraged to interview a mature Christian who seems to embody the way of Jesus in this aspect of everyday life.

\(^3\) For instance, you might like to employ one of the following methods: liberation theology’s see-judge-act; Paul Ballard and John Pritchard’s “Pastoral Cycle” of experience-exploration-reflection-action; or Richard Osmer’s “four tasks” of empirical-interpretive-theological-pragmatic. Whatever approach you choose, your method should be able to answer questions such as “What is going on?” “Why is this going on?” “What ought to be going on?” and “How might we respond?”

1. A major thrust of this unit
2. A contribution that this unit should make
3. A possible function of this unit, but not targeted
4. An unlikely product of this unit

Note: Graduates who have not completed the curricular and non-curricular ministry aspects of Malyon’s courses will tend to be most developed in Graduate Attribute 2.

Recommended and Optional Readings, by Module:

Students are expected to spend 2+ hours per week in reading and preparation for lectures. This will involve going over lecture notes, and reading at least one of the recommended pre-readings in the lecture schedule above. Besides the recommended reading, there are multiple optional readings uploaded to Moodle and available in the Library. See the readings list below. In summary, I suggest that you read roughly 30 pages per week (on top of the lecture notes), comprising one recommended reading alongside one other reading that seems most interesting, whether recommended or optional.

Module 1: Who Needs Theology?

Recommended Reading:

Optional Reading:

Explore the works of Michael Leunig here and here, to appreciate the intersection of the mundane and the transcendent.

Explore “Theology of Everything” topics on Theology Network online here to see the scope of everyday theology, alongside some of the journal articles submitted to the International Journal of Practical Theology online here.
Module 2: The Reflective Practitioner: Pístis, Phronēsis, Praxis

Recommended Reading: (n.b. This week a student shares theology of A-C aspect of everyday life⁴)

Optional Reading:

Module 3: Normative Sources for Theological Reflection

Recommended Reading: (n.b. This week a student shares theology of D-F aspect of everyday life)
